

Follow up activity: Words and Pictures

What you need: White boards and pens

- 1) In your groups decide which of the 10 words describes each picture
- 2) Write your answers on a white board in your groups
- 3) The teacher will ask one pupil from each group to feed back to the main white board
- 4) a) Why did you choose this word? (b) Did you change your mind after talking about this with the rest of the class?
- 5) what difference to you notice about the first picture and the second?
- 6) Why do you think we see adverts like this?

Think about the way you communicate with each other, what you call 'Banter' could have a profound effect on another, especially as our bodies change and grow at different rates.

Staying clean, tidy, and healthy is more important than false image

Be real, stay true to yourself and others
